

To run the index, execute the following command:

```
lein run
```

After creating the index, it will present the user with an interactive REPL to allow them to search the index.